Reflection for the Fourth Day of Christmas

Dear Mrs. Carr:

Here again are pine trees, and the wind, and living rock and water! ... Miles and miles of trees scripture along the sky, a Bible that will one day be read! The beauty of its letters and sentences have burned me like fire through all these Sierra seasons. Yet I cannot interpret their hidden thoughts. They are terrestrial expressions of the sun.

John Muir, Letter from Yosemite Valley, September 1874

Musical Call to Worship

The Call to Worship (congregation in bold)

Hear the words of the Prophet Isaiah:

“There shall come forth a shoot from the stump of Jesse,
and a branch shall grow out of his roots.

And the Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him,
the spirit of wisdom and understanding,
the spirit of counsel and might,
the spirit of knowledge and the awe of the Lord.

“With righteousness he shall judge for the poor and decide with equity for the meek of the earth.

For righteousness shall be the belt around his waist
and faithfulness the belt around his loins.

“The wolf shall lie down with the lamb,
and the leopard shall lie down with the kid,
and the calf and the lion and the fatling together,
and a little child shall lead them.”

People of God, come. Trust in God's faithfulness and sing your hope and joy!

*A Unison Prayer for Christmastide

Holy One, in this sacred season of prayer and song and laughter, we praise you for the great wonders you have sent us: for shining star and angel's song, for infant's cry in lowly manger. We praise you for the Word made flesh in a little Child, your Word made new through all creation. We behold your glory, born in a humble stable, surrounded by common creatures. We and they are bathed in its radiance. Thank you for this Christmastide. Amen.

WE ENGAGE

A Psalm for the First Sunday of Christmas

Psalm 148

Hallelujah!
Praise the Lord!
Praise the Lord from the heavens;
    praise God in the heights!
Praise the Lord, all you angels;
    praise the Lord, all you host!
Praise God, sun and moon;
    praise God, all you shining stars!
Praise the Lord, you highest heavens
    and you waters above the heavens!...

Praise the Lord from the earth,
    you sea monsters and all deeps,
fire and hail, snow and frost,
    stormy wind fulfilling God's command!

Mountains and all hills,
    fruit trees and all cedars!
Wild animals and all cattle,
    creeping things and flying birds!
Rulers of the earth and all peoples,
    princes and all rulers of the earth!
Young men and women alike,
    old and young together!
Let them praise the name of the Lord,
    for God's name alone is exalted;
    God's glory is above earth and heaven.
The Lord has raised up a horn for all people,
    praise for all the faithful,
    for all who come close to the Holy One.
Praise the Lord!

Home by Another Way – Next Sunday is Epiphany Sunday

According to Matthew's Gospel, when the Magi (or Kings or Wise Ones) were searching for the Christ Child, they got way off-track and ended up in King Herod's court, because that's where conventional wisdom told them to find a new king. (Not a good idea to tell the old king there's a new kid on the throne.) Herod wanted them to return to him once they found the child, but the Wise Ones finally wised up and "went home by another way." (Matt. 2:1-11) As we begin a new year, how might we find our way home in a new way?

A Final Reflection

If I had influence with the good fairy who is supposed to preside over the christening of all children I should ask that her gift to each child in the world be a sense of wonder so indestructible that it would last throughout life, as an unfailing antidote against the boredom and disenchantments of later years, the sterile preoccupation with things artificial, the alienation from the sources of our strength.
