A Prayer for the New Year

Grant that I may pass through the coming year with a faithful heart.
There will be much to test me and make weak my strength before the year ends.
In my confusion I shall often say the word that is not true and do the thing of which I am ashamed.
There will be errors in the mind and great inaccuracies of judgment.
In seeking the light,
I shall again and again find myself
walking in the darkness.
I shall mistake my light for Your light and I shall drink from the responsibility of the choices I make...
Though my days be marked with failures, stumbling, fallings, let my spirit be free so that You may take it and redeem my moments in all the ways my needs reveal.
Give me the quiet assurance of Your Love and Presence.
Grant that I may pass through the coming year with a faithful heart.

Howard Thurman, 20th c. Protestant Theologian

Shall We Gather at the River?
(*Please rise in body or spirit.)

Hanson Place

*Shall we gather at the river, where bright angel feet have trod,
With its crystal tide forever flowing by the throne of God?
Yes, we'll gather at the river, the beautiful, the beautiful river,
Gather with the saints at the river that flows by the throne of God.*

*On the margin of the river, washing up its silver spray,
We will walk and worship ever, all the happy golden day.
Yes, we'll gather at the river, the beautiful, the beautiful river,
Gather with the saints at the river that flows by the throne of God.*

Sharing God's Gifts and Regathering in Song

*As we reach the shining river, lay we every burden down,
Grace our spirits will deliver, and provide a robe and a crown.
Yes, we'll gather at the river, the beautiful, the beautiful river,
Gather with the saints at the river that flows by the throne of God.*

Musical Call to Worship

The Call to Worship

We gather to worship God, the Lord and Giver of Life.

God gives us the waters of new life.

In the deserts of our lives, in the wilderness within,

God gives us the waters of new life.

To give us hope when our lives run dry, to give us strength when our world seems barren,

God gives us the waters of new life.

To let peace flow like a river and love spring forth like a fountain,

God gives us the waters of new life.

To make justice roll down like waters and righteousness like a living stream,

God gives us the waters of new life.

To give us—and our world—a second chance and a new beginning,

God gives us the waters of new life.

Come, people of God. Open your lives to receive God's new life. Open your hearts to sing God's praise.

In a Time of Silent Prayer and the Affirmation of God's Grace

*In a Song of Praise

Come, O Fount of Every Blessing

Robert Robinson/Nettleton

Come, O Fount of every blessing, tune my heart to sing your grace.

Streams of mercy, never ceasing, call for songs of endless praise.

Teach me some melodious sonnet, sung by flaming tongues above.

Praise the mount; I'm fixed upon it, mount of God's unfailing love.

O to grace how great a debtor daily I am drawn anew!

Let that grace, now like a fetter, bind my wandering heart to you.

Prone to wander, I can feel it, wander from the love I've known.

Here's my heart, O take and seal it, seal it for your very own.

(During the song, children are invited to the Nurture Center with Children's Ministry Aides Maria Navarette and Destiny Muñoz to explore "the sacrament of baptism.")

WE ENGAGE

The Story of Jesus' Baptism and Call to Ministry

Matthew 3:13-17

Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan, to be baptized by him. John would have prevented him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?" But Jesus answered him, "Let it be so now; for it is proper for us in this way to fulfill all righteousness." Then he consented. And when Jesus had been baptized, just as he came up from the water, suddenly the heavens were opened to him and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting on him. And a voice from heaven said, "This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased."

Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the Devil.

WE SHARE AND RECEIVE

Prayers for a Baptized Life and the Lord's Prayer

O Fount of every blessing, we give you thanks for drawing creation from the well of your goodness, and for pouring out your love on all who thirst for good news.

We confess that we are thirsty, too, and we long to drink deeply.
Hear our prayers for your waters of new life.

(A time of silent prayer)

Wash over us with your living water.
If our lives have become shallow, deepen them.
If our ideals have dried up, revive them.
If our priorities have become confused, clarify them.
If our horizons have become too narrow, widen them.
Hear our prayers for your waters of new life.

(A time of silent prayer)

Hear also our prayers for your people—the loved ones we hold in our hearts and our neighbors and kindred in the whole human family.

(You are invited to name aloud the names of people or places.)

Bless by your Word and Spirit all the waters of this world—and bless us with the wisdom and commitment to use and share the gift of your waters so all might be blessed with their life-giving power.

Soak us in your presence. Drench us with your love.
Release us from all that burdens us,
and refresh us with your life-changing mercy.

In the name of our baptized Savior, we pray as he taught, with boldness, courage, and trust, saying:

(We conclude with the Lord's Prayer. Please pray a version familiar to you.)
